True or False Quiz for Seniors in Aged Care

1. Elizabeth Taylor married seven times.

    (A) False - Elizabeth married 8 times, including marrying Richard Burton twice.

2. Madonna the pop singer's real name is Madonna.

    (A) True - Her real name is Madonna.

3. The Basenji dog breed cannot bark.

    (A) True - Basenjis do not bark.

4. The Tower of London is attached to Buckingham Palace.

    (A) False - They are 4 miles apart.

5. Elvis Presley was a twin.

    (A) True - Elvis had a twin brother named Jesse who died at birth.

6. The best rainbows in the world can be seen in Hawaii.

    (A) True.

7. Four babies are born in the world every second.

    (A) True - Approximately 250 births per minute, 15,000 per hour, and 360,000 per day.

8. John is the most popular name in the world.

   (A) False - The most common name is Muhammad.

9. Sweden has more islands than any other country in the world.

   (A) True - Sweden has 221,800 islands, with about 1,000 inhabited.

10. All giant pandas in zoos around the world belong to China; they are only on loan to world zoos.

    (A) True.

11. England has more pets per household than any other country.

    (A) False - New Zealand has the most pets in their homes.

12. The Mona Lisa portrait painting has very distinct dark eyebrows.

    (A) False - The Mona Lisa painting has no eyebrows.

13. The strongest muscle in the body is the calf muscles in the leg.

    (A) False - It is the tongue.

14. Fleas can jump 350 times their body length.

    (A) True.

15. Only male mosquitoes bite.

    (A) False - Females bite, not males.

16. Starfish have brains half their body size.

    (A) False - They have no brains.

17. Penguins never lose their teeth.

    (A) False - They don't have teeth.

18. Tigers use their ears to communicate.

    (A) True.

19. In the state of Georgia, a law was passed to make it illegal to eat fried chicken with cutlery.

    (A) True.

20. Some people in the world still think the world is flat, not round.
    (A) True.